

The Holy Trinity

April 17, 2021

Christ is risen INDEED! Alleluia!
(Come to worship tomorrow to hear more about “indeed”)

Dear friends,

Good news! We are back inside for worship, as most of you know. But we want to clarify that our service time on Sundays is now 10 a.m. Wednesday worship continues at 6:30 p.m. Please wear a tight-fitting mask.

Sunday school is also back in session! We had a lively first class last Sunday and welcome new students anytime. We begin at 10 a.m. in the sanctuary with the children’s message and then move to the fellowship hall for class. Thanks to Sunday school superintendent Susy Pawl, and teachers Cheri Harwood, Gary and Judy Waalkens, and Stephanie Woodley for getting our spring term off to a great start.

This past Sunday we also launched our Spring drive for the Building/Maintenance fund, called “Growing Our Faith.” It goes through May 23 on the theme from John 15:5, “I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit.” Our goal is 100 gifts of $100, with each single or combined gift of $100 sprouting a new leaf on the vine which is growing above the entrance to the sanctuary. Watch the video on our web site and be part of this initiative to secure our future by maintaining our beautiful building. Thanks to Tiffany Chadwick for her artwork and team members Carol Woldt and Stephanie Woodley for their creativity and energy.

And big news for those of you who loved our drive-in service: Starting next Sunday, April 25, we are bringing it back at 8:30 a.m. on the last Sunday of each month, preceding the 10 a.m. indoor service! Please spread the word and give us your feedback. The Council is willing to consider adjustments to our worship life to accommodate whatever our needs happen to be. Here at Holy Trinity, we don’t want to present any obstacles to worship.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. (Romans 15:13)

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Raabe
